

JÁNOS LAKATOS

jazz dance

A professional dance artist, a choreographer with the Award of Excellence, a dance teacher and a professional photographer.

For 18 years I was a gymnast, also in the national team, Hungarian champion on six occasions. Since 1996 I have been working as a dancer, singer and choreographer for theatres. In eight states of the USA I have, at intervals, taught gymnastics, acrobatics, jazz and modern dances, among others on Broadway, at the Houston Ballet. As a teacher-choreographer I assisted the main coach of the US women's gymnastics national team for 5 years. At present I run successful courses at various places all over the world (e.g. in France, Poland, the Czech Republic, China).

Since 2003 I have been a permanent teacher of the annual International Modern Dance Workshop, where I can run courses together with the most distinguished teachers of the world (Raza Hammadi, Joseph Tmim, Neel Veerdorn, Joe Alegado).

I am the author of the book 'A LÁB-jegyzet' /THE FOOT-note'.

I regularly compose pieces for the National Dance Theatre and work as a presenter there. I photograph the events of Ballet Pécs, Ballet Győr, Contemporary Ballet Szeged and several other ensembles and events.
