

DANCER AND COACH (BA)

major: classical ballet		major: modern/contemporary 2 years (encompassing all subjects of a part-time three years' bachelor program)	Duration	3 years bachelor student	Grade	bachelor student daily classes: dance and theory	Includes	daily classes: dance and theory
18-45	Age	18-30
in June (written admission request might also be considered)	Audition	in May/June full professional classical ballet training; matura, baccalaureat (exam certifying that applicant may pursue higher education studies); B2 (upper intermediate) level English	Former studies required	knowledge of modern and/or contemporary techniques or methods as well as basics of classical ballet; matura, baccalaureat (exam certifying that applicant may pursue higher education studies); B2 (upper intermediate) level English
BA degree as dancer and coach, covering also the entire Vaganova methodology of classical ballet training	Awarding	BA degree as dancer and coach
1875 EUR/semester	Fee	1250 EUR/semester
For Stipendium Hungaricum scholarship see: www.stipendiumhungaricum.hu

Most important features

Several theoretical subjects (including psychology and pedagogy, motion biology, dance history and theory etc.) are also part of the curriculum. Training available in English language.

Important to know

Matura, baccalaureat (exam allowing entrance to higher education) is compulsory to be admitted.