

MÁRIA CSÁKY

classical ballet,
repertoire

I started my dance studies in Arad (RO) as a child. Having moved to Hungary in 1989-90, I finished a master's course, organized by Jolán Török. I graduated at the Hungarian Dance Academy as a teacher of modern dances in 2005.

I have been teaching in the town of Oroszlány since 1989. During the past decades, just like at present, my devotion has been spreading dance art and its beauties among children and young people. Several talented students of mine have chosen the career of dance artist and have earned European reputation. My students have had outstanding results both at domestic and international competitions. Due to its persistent and successful work, our workshop in Oroszlány has become an off-site talent centre of the Hungarian Dance University since the autumn of 2020.
