Lunch can be arranged on the university campus throughout the entire course for 70 € altogether.

Orders must be precisely indicated, handed in on the registration sheet and paid for before 15th July, 2021. Orders arriving later or cancellations afterwards cannot be taken into account (because of our suppliers)!

Concerning the meals for teachers, accompanying persons, family members, please contact the organizers of the course: kurzus@mte.eu

CANCELLATION, REFUND

Cancellations are accepted only in writing until 20th July, 2021, the latest.

Arriving later or leaving earlier, staying away do not entitle anyone to get a refund.

Paying a refund is possible in case of an illness with a medical certificate, proportionately on a time basis according to unspent parts of fees.

HEALTH INSURANCE

All participants must take out full, comprehensive health insurance. Those who are not entitled to use the Hungarian insurance system (based on TAJ) but are citizens of the European Union, are asked to bring their European Health Insurance Card. Citizens of third countries should possess comprehensive health insurance which provides them with full health care between the dates of arrival and departure from the course.

The HDU will not be held responsible for any damage or injury, however caused, to any person attending the course. The organizers must be informed if a candidate has any health problems or allergies, and ask for a doctor's note, specifying anything we should be aware of in relation to their condition. The HDU will not be held responsible for any injury or illness, prior to attending the course. Any dancer who appears to have an inadequate training background, may be asked to join a lower class to avoid accidents and injuries.
