

OKTÁVIA SZIGETI

modern dance (beginners)

I studied at the Pécs Secondary School of Arts, then in Paris. On my return, I qualified as a dance teacher, first at the college level at the Hungarian Dance Academy, later in the MA programme.

From 1992 until 1996 I was a soloist of Madách Theatre and the Budapest Dance Theatre. Following this, I was the soloist of Balett Jazz Art de Paris until 2001. After returning to Hungary again, I worked for Ballet Pécs, then became the ballet section's leader at Ballet Debrecen.

Since 1996 I have been running summer courses all over the country (Nyíregyháza, Debrecen, Tiszavárkony, Budapest, Veszprém, Eger, Szekszárd, Dunakeszi, Vác, Kozármisleny etc.)

Since 2004 I have been the teacher of the Hungarian Dance Academy/University, having represented the University abroad on several occasions. At present, I am the professional leader of the off-site training programme of the University in Pécs and teach at the Pécs Secondary Grammar and Secondary School of Arts. I had a major role in the realisation of an EFOP project in contents development: "Promoting the skills-development of students in institutions of public education."
